Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 24, 2013, the Board of Directors of Armada Hoffler Properties, Inc. (the “Company”) voted to increase the number of directors constituting the entire Board of Directors (the “Board”) of the Company from seven to eight directors. In connection with that action, the Board appointed Admiral Joseph W. Prueher as an independent director of the Company, effective October 24, 2013, to fill the vacancy created by the increase in the number of directors. Admiral Prueher will serve until the Company’s annual meeting of stockholders to be held in 2014 and until his successor is duly elected and qualifies. The Board also appointed Admiral Prueher to serve on the Board’s Audit Committee. As a result of Admiral Prueher’s appointment to the Audit Committee, and in light of John W. Snow’s other responsibilities as Lead Independent Director and as Chairman of the Board’s Compensation Committee, and with Mr. Snow’s consent, Mr. Snow ceased to be a member of the Audit Committee effective as of October 24, 2013.

Admiral Prueher is a former James R. Schlesinger Distinguished Professor at the University of Virginia’s Miller Center of Public Affairs as well as a Senior Advisor to the Stanford-Harvard Preventive Defense Project, working on dialog for U.S.-China security matters. Admiral Prueher completed 35 years of service in the U.S. Navy and served as ambassador to China under Presidents William J. Clinton and George W. Bush. While in the Navy, Admiral Prueher was the 17th commander-in-chief of the U.S. Pacific Command (CINCPAC) and the senior military commander of all U.S. Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force troops in the Pacific and Indian Oceans. Admiral Prueher currently serves on the boards of Emerson, New York Life and Fluor Corporation.

In connection with his appointment, Admiral Prueher received a grant of $6,250 in restricted shares of the Company’s common stock under the Armada Hoffler Properties, Inc. 2013 Equity Incentive Plan. A third of the grant vested on October 24, 2013, the date of grant, while the remaining two-thirds vest in equal amounts on the first two anniversaries following the date of grant, subject to Admiral Prueher’s continued service on the Board. Admiral Prueher’s compensation as a director will be consistent with the compensation policies applicable to the Company’s other non-employee directors. Admiral Prueher also is expected to enter into an indemnification agreement with the Company substantially in the form attached as Exhibit 10.4 to the Company’s Registration Statement on Form S-11, as amended (File No. 333-187513), and described in the prospectus included therein.

The Company issued a press release on October 25, 2013 announcing the appointment of Admiral Prueher. A copy of the press release is filed as an exhibit to this report and is incorporated herein by reference.

ARMADA HOFFLER PROPERTIES ELECTS NEW MEMBER TO BOARD OF DIRECTORS

VIRGINIA BEACH, VA, October 25, 2013—Armada Hoffler Properties, Inc. (NYSE: AHH), today announced that Admiral Joseph W. Prueher, USN (Ret.) has been unanimously elected to the Company’s board of directors, effective October 24, 2013. He will stand for re-election to the board at the Company’s 2014 annual meeting of stockholders.

“We are very fortunate that Admiral Prueher has joined our board. He has distinguished himself in service to our Nation as well as other leadership roles,” said Lou Haddad, Armada Hoffler Properties president and chief executive officer. “Our management team will benefit from his unique perspectives and experience.”

Admiral Prueher joins the Armada Hoffler board of directors following a decorated military and public service career. He is a former James R. Schlesinger Distinguished Professor at the University of Virginia’s Miller Center of Public Affairs as well as Senior Advisor to the Stanford-Harvard Preventive Defense Project, working on dialog for US-China security matters.

Admiral Prueher completed 35 years of service in the U.S. Navy and served as ambassador to China under Presidents William J. Clinton and George W. Bush. While in the Navy, Admiral Prueher was the 17th commander-in-chief of the U.S. Pacific Command (CINCPAC) and the senior military commander of all the U.S. Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Air Force troops in the Pacific and Indian Oceans. He began his naval career as a carrier-based attack pilot and is a combat veteran of the Vietnam War.

A native of Nashville, Tenn., Admiral Prueher graduated with distinction from the U.S. Naval Academy in 1964 and later received a master’s of science degree in International Relations from George Washington University. He currently serves on the boards of Emerson, New York Life, and Fluor Corporation.
